ADDITIONAL INTEL UPDATES:

- CIG was advised of a live video posted to Personal Info. Facebook page in which some of the convoy organizers mention the following:
 - Call for a delegation from city to meet with them this Tuesday, February 8
 - Agree to shorten honking time to 5 minutes a day, starting at 1700hrs as a sign of good faith.
 - Warn residents that if they hear horns at 1200hrs on 2022-02-08, it means the city “has no interest in resolving this”
 - Claim that when the police act aggressively it encourages the support for the movement.
 - Sate that the city must deescalate aggressive police action against the convoy.
 - Insist the mandates are a federal issue.
 - State that crime in the city is down 90% since the convoy has arrived.
 - States that residents who are not happy should direct their comments to their designated MP.
 - State that Ottawa is not the only area to protest, that they can pass it around to the municipal level.

2

- An Ottawa judge has granted an interim injunction seeking to silence the honking horns that have plagued residents of downtown Ottawa for the past 11 days. The injunction will be in effect for only 10 days.³
